

Attend the BC Information Summit and Be Part of Canada's Right to Know Week!

The second BC Information Summit will take a fresh look at how to strengthen citizens' right to know and create an open government with a free flow of information to the public

Some of the Summit highlights include:

- Top 5 Things the Government Should Do to Strengthen the Right to Know
- The Public's Right to Know Versus National Security
- Freedom of Information after 15 years: Is the Reality What the BC Legislature Intended?
- The Policy Advice Controversy
- Getting it on the Record: A Call for a Legislative Duty to Create Records
- Public-Private Partnerships and their Challenges to Transparency and Accountability

The BC Information Summit will be held at UBC Robson Square
 Friday October 5, 2007
 8:45 am to 5:00 pm

	Early Bird	Regular
Organization rate*	$75	$90
Individual rate	$55	$65
Senior/student rate	$25	$30
All rates include a buffet lunch
Early Bird Rates are available until September 21, 2007

**Organization rate for those attending on behalf of their company or organization.*

\*Individual rate for those attending on their own behalf.*

Visit www.infosummit.ca to learn more and register now!